ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

To celebrate their anniversary, Sharon and Joss joined us for a champagne design Experience.

They had a pair of eternity rings made to compliment Sharon's unique engagement ring.

Sharon's 18ct white gold rings are hand-made to fit perfectly around her ring. All together they look like one big beautiful diamond cluster!

A perfect match

We made Jessica and Lawrence's rings for their wedding last year.

We were recommended to Jessica when she was looking for a shaped wedding ring to fit around her antique engagement ring.

We created a hand-made, 18ct white gold shaped ring, set with diamonds. It follows the profile of her engagement ring. For Lawrence, we made a chic and hard-wearing titanium band with a concave design.

JANE'S ENGAGEMENT RING RE-MODEL

Jane was over the moon when we re-modelled her engagement ring and made an eternity ring to match, all using her gold and diamonds from the original ring.

She came to us with a problem, her engagement ring kept losing stones! We had made Jane and her husband's wedding rings a few years ago, so she thought we might be able to help!

The delicate style of setting on Jane's ring meant that stones could come out and replacing them was very difficult. In the new ring, she was looking for the stones to be held in securely and wanted to keep the personality of the original she loved.

Our designer Fen created this tiered flush set ring, following the shape and style of Jane's original engagement ring.

In the new design, we couldn't use all of the diamonds because there just wouldn't have been space! Jane decided to have some of the stones from her engagement ring set into a new eternity ring!

Here's what Jane had to say about her new rings:

"I'd like to thank you for translating my thoughts into a beautiful design and really keeping the essence of what I love about my engagement ring. I'm so pleased with the end result and they look amazing together, I'll cherish them forever."

Safety risk and congestion top M3 services concerns

By Owen Hughes

FURIOUS Basingstoke campaigners opposed to plans for two new motorway service areas on the M3 held a public protest on Friday.

The group gathered on a bridge crossing the M3 to discuss MP Maria Miller's petition objecting to the proposed service stations that was put before parliament on Tuesday last week.

Mrs Miller said: "This petition, which has received more than 3,000 signatures, demonstrates the very significant level of concern among local residents about the two separate proposals for new motorway services.

"Residents have told me of their serious concerns that new facilities would be a risk to road safety and cause congestion, as well as being incredibly damaging to our environment.

"Furthermore, they are simply not needed, given that the existing services at Fleet and Winchester are only 23 miles apart."

Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council is currently considering the proposed services at Junction 6, which has received 179 objections.

The proposal for the service area at Hatch Warren would potentially involve a flyover being built across the motorway near homes and Brighton Hill playing fields.

Youngsters are singing stars

PRIMARY school pupils from Old Basing realised a once in a lifetime ambition to perform on stage at the Royal Albert Hall.

More than 1,700 young musicians performed at the iconic venue as part of Hampshire Music Service's youth ensembles.

Nearly 200 Hampshire schools were represented at the event, including 30 children from St Mary's CE Junior School in Old Basing.

St Mary's headteacher Caroline Welch said: "How many children, or in fact adults, can say that they have performed at the Royal Albert Hall?"

"Our children were enthralled. "I loved watching their faces as they entered the auditorium for the first time - true awe and wonder."

Year 5 pupil Tom Welsh-Smythe said: "It was really exciting to sing at the Royal Albert Hall."

"I've never been there before and it was a once in a lifetime opportunity."

"We sang several songs. The whole thing was really exciting. I really enjoy singing, especially jazzy, happy songs, and I am going to carry on singing in the choir."

The programme included the premiere of My World by Hampshire lyricist Zella Compton and composer Tom Guyer.

Renditions of We Will Remember Them and Passchendaele rang around the old hall in honour of the centenary of the end of the First World War.

Child grooming increase

By Owen Hughes

CHILD grooming crimes recorded in Hampshire have trebled in the past year.

Hampshire Constabulary recorded a total of 291 instances of child grooming from April 1 2013 to December 31 2017, with 150 of those offences recorded between April 2017 and December 2017.

In the previous 12 months, Hampshire recorded just 53 grooming offences, according to Home Office figures.

NSPCC launched a #WildWestWeb campaign calling on culture secretary Matt Hancock to regulate social media with Facebook and Facebook-owned apps used in more than half of online grooming cases.

A new offence of Sexual Communication with a Child came into force in April 2017 and increased the recording of online grooming.

Detective Superintendent Rachel Farrell said: "We take online grooming offences very seriously and are robust and thorough in both our recording and investigation of these crimes."

"The internet is no place to hide and we will work proactively to identify and trace offenders."

The force works closely with partners in children's services and education to safeguard vulnerable children.

Police engage in prevention and safety initiatives with children, young people and their parents and carers.

Det Supt Farrell added that rising offences "are likely to reflect more awareness and confidence in reporting."

"The sad reality is the extent of the problem is far wider than is reported to the police and many victims will be too frightened or embarrassed to seek help. We need to change that."

"We would urge anyone worried about the contact they or their child are having with someone online to get in touch with us."

Colin Rowland, interim executive director of borough services at Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council, said: "The council has a duty of care to share information with Hampshire's multi-agency Safeguarding Children and Adults Boards when we become aware of safeguarding concerns in our communities. This includes risks with online and social media activity."

"We have a safeguarding policy in place and our staff undertake awareness training. We also support training for community organisations working with vulnerable people."

The council is running a Think Safe programme for 1,900 Year 6 pupils across the borough including a session on internet safety.

Pet store robbery

ROBBERS forced their way into Pets at Home in Wallop Drive, Basingstoke, on Sunday at 5.30pm.

A man threatened the female staff member to let him in just after she had closed up.

Two other unknown men then joined him.

They stuffed cash into a blue waste bin before heading towards Beggarwood Park where it is believed they parked their car.

Anyone with information should call police on 101 quoting 44180158024.

Hate crime event

A CITIZENS Advice Basingstoke event last week highlighted the devastating effects of hate crime.

Basingstoke Multicultural Forum, the Nepalese Society, Mencap, housing associations, BCot and QMC attended the event.

Basingstoke Police, the Police and Crime Commissioner's Office and the Borough Council's Community Safety Team were also represented.

Basingstoke MP Maria Miller said: "Having third party reporting centres like the CAB plays an important role in making it easier for people to report hate crime."

Travellers petition

NORTH East Hampshire MP Ranil Jayawardena has launched a petition to give police more powers against unauthorised traveller encampments.

Mr Jayawardena said in the House of Commons: "We do have discrimination in this country, not against travellers and gypsies, given the number of advocates they clearly have on the Opposition Benches, but against the hard-working, honest residents of communities up and down the land, the silent majority."

Young doctors in the house

By Owen Hughes

YOUNGSTERS discovered what it takes to run a hospital when they took over at Basingstoke and North Hampshire Hospital last week.

Members of the Basingstoke Hospital Youth Forum aged between 11 and 16 met for the fourth time to work with Hampshire Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust on ways to improve patient experience.

The wannabe-medics had an interactive look around an operating theatre and experienced what it's like to be a part of the team as they scrubbed up, practiced CPR and inserted a breathing tube in a simulated patient.

Other parts of the day included getting a first-hand look at how meals are freshly prepared each day, learning more about x-rays and finding out what happens in the pathology labs.

Bella, who one day wants to return to Basingstoke Hospital as a member of nursing staff, was one of the youth forum members who took part in the takeover.

She said: "Being part of the youth forum is really important because when you spend a lot of time in hospital, the environment you're in really matters to you."

"As part of the youth forum I get to make a positive difference to the experiences other young people have in hospital."

"The takeover day has been brilliant because it's shown us all just how many people are involved in our care when we stay in hospital."

"The doctors, nurses and play team on the children's ward do an amazing job."

"It was really interesting looking at so many different departments."

"The theatre was my highlight but we all had a great day and have lots of ideas to take forward."

Donna Green, chief nurse at Hampshire Hospitals, said: "The takeover day was a real success and all of the teams involved enjoyed showing our youth forum members what they do."

"Hearing directly from patients about what it is they would like to see happen at our hospitals is crucial in helping us to continually improve our services."

"It was wonderful to spend some time with members of the forum, hearing their ideas and answering their questions."

'24/7 blots on the landscape not wanted'

Mike Henry, a former Highways Agency consultant on related matters along the M3, said: "I cannot speak for current Highways England views. However it has long been recognised that there are seasonal capacity and safety challenges in the weaving distance between Junction 7 and 8 of the M3. Indeed Highways England has acknowledged this as recently as March 2017 in its M25 to Solent Route Strategy."

Borough councillors joined Mrs Miller and members of Basingstoke Residents Against Motorway Service Stations in the protest.

Basing ward councillor, Onnalee Cubitt, said: "Basingstoke residents have signed this petition to show very clearly that they don't want these 24/7 blots on the local landscape, with the pollution, traffic and noise they will bring."

Cllr Terri Reid, who represents Hatch Warren and Beggarwood, said: "The response to the petition from local residents has been phenomenal, and underlines the strength of feeling against the proposal."

"The strong message is, this is a step too far, Hatch Warren and Beggarwood residents have had enough and we will fight this proposal all the way."

Councillors Cubitt and deputy leader of the council Reid are standing in the Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council elections today.

Guests enjoy dinner, fun and fundraising

By Owen Hughes

BIG-HEARTED Basingstoke residents raised more than £18,000 for charities at a black tie event.

Basingstoke Rotary Club's charity dinner attracted 160 people to the event with donations made to Ark Cancer Centre Charity, Home-Start North West Hampshire and other Rotary-backed charities.

A silent and live auction, raffle, and higher/lower game were all well supported contributing to an impressive fundraising total.

The majority of the funds raised will go to Ark and Home-Start North West Hampshire.

Ark Cancer Centre Charity is raising £5million towards a much-needed cancer treatment centre that is earmarked for the Basingstoke hospital site.

Home-Start North West Hampshire provides vital support to struggling families through a network of highly-trained volunteers across Basingstoke and Deane.

Janette Hewitt, chair of trustees at Home-Start North West Hampshire, spoke to the audience about the charity's crucial work and appealed for more people to join its army of volunteers.

Ark Cancer Centre Charity trustee Merv Rees gave the audience an update on the progress of Ark's fundraising campaign, which has now reached £1.8m.

He added that delivering the cancer treatment centre is "a top priority for Hampshire Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust", which will provide most of the funding for the project.

Both speakers thanked everyone for their support and paid particular tribute to Basingstoke Rotarian Mark Flower, the driving force behind the charity dinner.

Mark thanked all those who had contributed to the event's success on April 19, including fellow Basingstoke Rotarian Bob Jenner, who conducted the live auction.

He also thanked award-winning Basingstoke singer and Ark Cancer Centre Charity supporter Natasha Watts, whose 30-minute set was among the highlights of the event.

He said: "This was one of the most successful events that Basingstoke Rotary Club has been involved with, and I am delighted that the generous support of those who attended means we have delivered a great result for some very good causes.

"I would like to thank everyone who was involved in making the event happen, and I am particularly grateful to the sponsors, companies, and individuals who donated prizes for the raffle, auctions, or took adverts out in the programme that was kindly produced by Greenhouse Graphics."

Walkers gather cash protecting green space

RAISING money for charity was a walk in the park for North Hampshire fundraisers who turned out in their droves last month.

Hannah Houstin-Lacey, from the North Hampshire District Group, raised £2,400 for CPRE Hampshire after organising a bluebell walk in Ellisfield, Basingstoke.

More than 50 walkers and numerous dogs joined Hannah on the event, including constituency MP Ranil Jayawardena and recent CPRE North Hampshire chairman Peter Bedford.

The walk took in seven miles of stunning Hampshire countryside and ended with walkers enjoying tea, cake and a raffle in Ellisfield village hall.

Hannah said: "This was such a happy social occasion and with everyone pulling together to support a very worthwhile charity."

"There was a fabulous community spirit throughout the whole occasion with many friends supporting me as well."

"It was a glorious sunny day and the bluebells were magnificent, I never get tired of drinking in their

#hello my name is Chris, thank you for joining me

By Owen Hughes

A GLOBAL campaign to get hospital staff to introduce themselves to patients made its way to Basingstoke last month.

International healthcare campaigner Chris Pointon visited Basingstoke and North Hampshire Hospital to introduce the #hellomynameis campaign.

The idea of the campaign is to highlight the importance of staff introducing themselves to patients.

Chris founded the campaign alongside his wife, Dr Kate Granger, who passed away in 2016 after being diagnosed with an aggressive form of cancer five years earlier.

While in hospital, Kate saw life through the eyes of a patient and was shocked that not everyone looking after her introduced themselves before delivering care.

She and Chris decided to start the #hellomynameis campaign to raise awareness of the issue and encourage healthcare staff to introduce themselves to patients at the start of every interaction.

The campaign has been a huge success, being adopted by hospitals across the world, and Chris is keeping it alive.

Staff at Royal Hampshire County Hospital, in Winchester, and Andover War Memorial Hospital watched Chris

Chris Pointon with chief nurse Donna Green during his visit to Hampshire Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust spreading the word about his campaign

Pointon speak about his life with Kate via a live video stream.

Chris said: "I enjoyed my visit to Hampshire Hospitals and would like to say a big thank you to everyone who supported me by coming along to hear me talk, either in person or via the video link."

"Thank you to all of the staff at the Trust for doing what they do every day and for supporting our campaign."

"I'm more than halfway through my global tour now and it is going really well."

"Doing this was something Kate and

I talked about and it's great to know that I'm doing something she would have wanted me to do, while continuing to spread the word and tell our story."

Donna Green, chief nurse at Hampshire Hospitals, said: "It was a huge honour to welcome Chris to Hampshire Hospitals and hear his amazing and inspiring story."

"I know he has had a profound effect on many of the people who heard him speak."

Donna added the Trust is committed to making sure staff introduce themselves to each patient.

Students from Stagecoach Basingstoke performed at Shaftesbury Theatre

Young stars in the spotlight

BASINGSTOKE students were in the spotlight in front of an adoring audience as they trod the legendary West End boards.

Students from Stagecoach Performing Arts Basingstoke took to the stage at the iconic Shaftesbury Theatre in London's West End last month as part of a nationwide Stagecoach initiative.

The talented children performed Blondie's Call Me, inspired by the West End production of Desperately Seeking Susan, and After The Rains from the upcoming Broadway musical This is My Life, the story of Shirley Bassey.

Students from 16 Stagecoach schools across the country were thrilled to entertain friends and family as they got a taste of stardom.

Stagecoach Performing Arts Basingstoke principals Andy and Samantha Sullivan said the children put in an "astounding performance".

"For the children to be able to perform at Shaftesbury Theatre is a dream come true, whether they dream of being West End stars or they sing, dance and act for fun," the pair added.

"Performances like this are a huge confidence booster and there was a great sense of camaraderie among the pupils."

"It was a magical day for all concerned, with the students gaining the wonderful experience of performing."

Show some love for summer music fest

By Owen Hughes

BASINGSTOKE residents can show their love for the town as tickets for the summer festival of music are waiting to be snapped up.

Day or weekend tickets for the B LOVE festival went on sale last week with more than 70 acts taking to the stage in War Memorial Park on July 7 and 8.

Music lovers who 'put your hands on' on Sunday's festivities will see headliners Reef perform classic and new hits, with DJ and record producer Wilkinson on stage entertaining crowds on Saturday.

Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council's arts and events manager, Ross Harvie, said: "We're excited to be able to show off the full line-up for B LOVE for the first time.

"Thanks to the hard work of the B LOVE Forum, Basingstoke-born performers will be sharing the same stage as chart-topping acts."

Other top artists and bands performing on Saturday include Berna, Matt Wills and Lyrical D, with Hacktivist, New Town

Kings and The Treatment on Sunday.

One day tickets will cost adults £10 and teenagers £2, or £15 and £3 respectively for both days.

Entry for children under 12 is free when accompanied by a paying adult.

See the full line-up and buy tickets at blovemusic.com

InBrief

Home chef service

CHEFS and cooks in Basingstoke can apply to work for a new food delivery service without having to leave the comfort of their own kitchen.

The Basingstoke-based order-up.uk launches later this month and is looking for anyone with a passion for cooking and a home kitchen to join the service.

Chefs would start their own business from their kitchen, with support in food hygiene, finances, menus and packaging supplies.

Operations director Sean Lawrence said: "Ultimately, there are zero to minimum setup costs for chefs.

"We add a chef's menu to our website and mobile apps and give access to hungry locals during opening hours.

"Once we receive an order, our dispatch team notify the chef of the order and send them a collection time.

"All our riders use heated equipment ensuring food remains hot and in excellent condition."

The organisation's goal is to reduce the number of people claiming benefits in Hampshire by providing them with a stable income.

Take to the catwalk

A BASINGSTOKE charity will strut its stuff on the runway this month.

Young People's Independent Counselling will host a ladies fashion show on May 26 at the Crowne Plaza Hotel, Basingstoke.

The event offers High Street brand discounts, a charity raffle and style advice.

Funds will support counselling for 11 to 25 year olds and services such as family therapy and specialist sexual abuse counselling.

Coastbusting dads to take on 903-mile ride

By Owen Hughes

TWO Basingstoke fathers are planning to go the extra mile and then some to raise funds for playground equipment.

Friends Tony Green and Kevin Grant will cycle a 903.13 mile route from Land's End to John O'Groats this summer to fund playground equipment for St John's Primary School in Basingstoke.

Tony was inspired to undertake the epic challenge after bonding with a customer while servicing his boiler almost a decade ago.

After learning his customer had completed the prestigious challenge, Tony considered doing the long-distance ride himself.

Friend and amateur athlete Kevin, also from Basingstoke, decided to join Tony on the journey and agreed to raise funds for their children's school.

Tony's wife Jenny said: "St John's Primary School is a very caring and giving school who put everything into making learning a positive experience for the children."

"The head teaching team were very keen for some new outside play equipment for the children to enjoy at break time and this fitted the challenge perfectly."

"We decided on this summer in the school holidays so our four children

Left, Tony Green and Kevin Grant are planning to cycle from Land's End to John O'Groats to raise funds for play equipment could be a part of this adventure too; fingers crossed the weather is good to us."

The family teams are aiming to raise £3,500 for the school.

It's estimated that the journey will take nine days to complete spending eight hours per day in the saddle.

Jenny added: "It is well known as a huge mental and physical challenge and one that requires hours of training and commitment."

"Make no mistake, this is going to be extremely tough, but we have no doubt they have the determination and commitment to do this."

"Thank you to the fantastic members of Hatchwarren Beggarwood Cycling Club."

"Without their support, knowledge and weekly rides, this level of fitness would not have been achieved."

The self-dubbed 'coastbusters' will push off from Land's End on July 27 with donations accepted via their fundraising page until August 11.

Serving up new dining area

AN Odiham independent school is being revamped with a fresh new kitchen and dining area.

The refurbishment and extension of the catering facilities at Lord Wandsworth College will cost £3.5million and is due to be completed by November.

Headmaster Adam Williams said: "The new dining hall will be a fantastic modern venue that will be enjoyed by the 650 pupils that the college will educate and its teaching staff, and provide state of the art kitchen facilities for the in-house catering team."

The new facility will feature contemporary dining areas and a glass walled extension overlooking a converted courtyard seating area.

Contractors Amiri Construction are no strangers to the campus.

In 2003, they completed the construction of a £625,000 music and drama block followed by a £1.6m teaching and learning space in 2011.

Amiri's director Mark Vincent said: "The specialist work within the education sector has contributed over £70m in project values for both private and state funded schools, colleges and universities."

Mancon project management architect Rollo Malcom-Green, said the existing brick building will receive external renovations with "even the metal water down pipes" re-used ensuring the original character of the building is retained.

Consider yourself in the cast?

By Josh Cox

CONSIDER yourself at home with Lionel Bart's classic musical based on Charles Dickens' much-loved Oliver Twist.

Rare Productions will once again return to The Haymarket with their much anticipated summer show, the timeless classic Oliver.

The Tony and Olivier Award-winning show is one of the few musicals to win an Academy Award for Best Picture and is widely hailed as a true theatrical masterpiece by actors and audience members alike.

The streets of Victorian England come to life as Oliver, a malnourished orphan in a workhouse, becomes the neglected apprentice of an undertaker. Oliver escapes to London and finds acceptance among a group of petty thieves and pickpockets led by the elderly Fagin.

When Oliver is captured for a theft he did not commit, the benevolent victim, Mr Brownlow takes him in. Fearing for the safety of his hideout, Fagin employs the sinister Bill Sikes and the sympathetic Nancy to kidnap him back, threatening Oliver's chances of discovering the true love of a family.

Rare Productions
in rehearsal for a

Putting big cats in the frame

INTERNATIONALLY renowned artist Pip McGarry returns to Odiham to showcase his latest oil paintings collection, Big Cats And Other Animals.

The Hampshire-based wildlife artist, who has been artist-in-residence at Marwell Zoological Park in Winchester for nearly 20 years, brings his latest collection to The Frame Gallery High Street for a fortnight-long exhibition, which opens this Saturday and runs until May 19.

The exhibition will also feature the work of Gale and Alex McGarry.

Pip said: "I am excited to be bringing my latest works back to a beautiful venue, The Frame in Odiham. This 2018 collection sees some of my most detailed and charismatic work to date. I have tried to capture specific moments in time and bring them to life in front of your eyes."

"This exhibition features a huge range of animals. I hope that, by displaying my creations alongside Gale's still life and Alex's animals, we will produce a collection that will leave a lasting impression.

"I look forward to welcoming art lovers in Hampshire and the surrounding areas to my latest exhibition - both established audiences and maybe to introduce some newcomers to our work also."

Proceeds from his celebrated work go towards supporting Marwell's animal conservation projects.

Pip spends much of his time in Africa, and he has been on safari more than 30 times. This all contributes to his artistic authenticity. He also featured on TV in 2004 where he taught celebrities how to paint.

The Frame Gallery was crowned the winner of the 2015 and 2017 Art Retailer of the Year as well as being finalists in 2016.

Call The Frame Gallery on 01256 701 082 for more information about the exhibition or visit theframe-gallery.co.uk.

Each number in our Cross Code grid represents a different letter of the alphabet. You have three letters in the control grid to start you off. Enter them in the appropriate squares in the main grid, then use your knowledge of words to work out which letters should go in the missing squares.

As you get the letters, fill in other squares with the same number in the main grid and control grid. Check off the alphabetical list of letters as you identify them.

MAGIC SQUARE

Dacia Sandero 'Ambiance' TCe 90

You're not mad to want one of these!

By Tony Yates

Say the words 'I'm going to go out and buy a Dacia Sandero' any louder than a whisper and people from all corners of the globe will suddenly look at you like you are stark raving mad!

Well, I'm here today to tell you that you are not any of those things; in fact, I'm here to tell you that the Dacia Sandero is a car that has been built to do the best it can for very little money.

Power & efficiency

The Sandero I had on test was powered by a 3 cylinder 898cc - 5-speed turbocharged petrol engine that has 90HP and a respectable top speed of around 109mph, plus a 0-62 time of 11.1 seconds - which in my book is not bad for a 3 cylinder engine that's basically built for economy and not speed. Fuel consumption is also very good with a combined figure of 57.6 mpg. Also, the Sandero is actually a pretty good car for very little money. Yes, it's not hot hatch fast, but then again, it's not supposed to be. Plus, you have to remember that the Sandero costs under £9,000 in basic form meaning it really is the bargain of the century.

On the road

It's a little soft, but into the corners, it feels OK. I was actually amazed how well it did perform when you look again at it's under £9,000 price tag. As for that 3-cylinder petrol engine, it plods away without grumbling that much at all. Yes, it only has 90HP, but it actually does a pretty good job of moving along in what I would call a 'leisurely pace'.

Another plus point for the Sandero is that it has a decent amount of torque - in fact, 140Nm of it - which allows it to pull very well from pretty much any gear as long as you remember what I said earlier, that in my opinion - its built for economy and not speed.

I must also point out that I actually liked driving it, which surprised me, as I'm not used to driving cars with less than 100HP for the morning school run, or for taking all my friends to football training on a Saturday morning - which actually, it did a pretty good job of considering it was loaded with five huge men and all their football kit.

Design & technology

On the inside, the interior is 'basic', and some of the interior plastics do look and feel 'cheap and scratchy'. But then again, it's not the end of the world. Although I would have preferred it if Dacia had spent a few quid more on the interior feel - which in the end would have helped it feel a little less 'basic'. But, its functional I suppose, and at such a low price, I'm willing to accept it.

Standard equipment in 'Ambiance' trim includes; body-coloured bumpers, satin chrome central console surround and instrument surrounds, 3 height-adjustable rear headrests, anti-intruder automatic door-locking system, remote central locking, eco mode, stop/start, manual air conditioning, electric front windows, DAB/FM/AM tuner with fingertip control and 4 speakers, Bluetooth connectivity, AUX input & USB connection.

To sum up:

I'm going to give the Sandero four stars in this test, not only because I like how it drives, but also because I like the price tag.

End of the road for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle.

That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD). A CoD proves the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and is no longer your responsibility. www.direct.gov.uk/motoring

Row battle it out for play-offs

By George Welch

HARTLEY Wintney faced the biggest game in their history last night as they battled it out with AFC Dunstable for a place in the Evo-Stik South East play-off final.

The winners take on the victors of Hayes and Yeading's clash with Cambridge City, which also took place after we went to press last night, on bank holiday Monday.

The Row finished fourth in the table in an impressive debut season in the eighth tier after losing 4-3 at home to Aylesbury United in their final league game.

Hartley enjoyed home advantage against Dunstable as they finished higher in the division. Should they win, they will only benefit from home advantage in the final if Cambridge win away at Hayes and Yeading.

There was little riding on the final game of the season and, before kick off, Paul Hodges was awarded the Hartley Wintney Supporters' Player of the Year award.

A bumper crowd of 231 saw Hartley start brightly and they had four early chances, Nic Ciardini, Hodges (twice) and Jack French all going close.

It was the visitors though who broke the deadlock against the run of play on 34 minutes.

Jeanmal Prosper made good progress down the right and his cross found Sonny French who fired home from the edge of the box.

Jack French bundled the ball over the line for Hartley on the stroke of half time to make sure the sides went in level at the break.

In an all-action second half the visitors were first to settle and took the lead on 50 minutes, Aaron Berry striking home off the post from 18 yards.

It was 2-2 on 76 minutes when Hodges scored from close range.

The visiting Ducks refused to give up and took the lead for the third time two minutes later when Ben Seaton headed in the fifth goal of the game.

Aylesbury made the game safe when Berry tried his luck from 30 yards with three minutes to go.

There was still time for James Tennant to pull a Hartley goal back in the 90th minute.

It mattered little and the Row were quick to turn their focus to last night's game.

Richard Lee, centre, with two young keepers at the free training session last week

Young keepers in safe hands

YOUNG Basingstoke goalkeepers strapped on their gloves and tightened their laces for a training session they won't ever forget.

Former Premier League keeper and GK Icon founder Richard Lee put more than 80 young budding goalies through their paces on Monday last week at Powerleague Basingstoke in Brighton Hill.

The session is designed to help nurture talented youngsters and improve elements of their game needed to become a top level player between the sticks.

Craig Prall, leading the Basingstoke GK Icon centre, said: "I have been with GK Icon for three years.

"Year on year, I have seen a lot of improvement in the keepers that come through our centre. It shows by a lot of them picking up awards at their end of season ceremonies."

With over 70 centres worldwide, GK Icon helps aspiring keepers with inspiring sessions that players don't ordinarily receive at regular training sessions.

Founder Richard Lee, who led the session in Basingstoke, spent his most successful years with Watford between 2002 and 2010, making 92 appearances including a spell in goal in the top flight.

The Oxford-born player also lined up for Brentford and appeared for the England U20 side during his career.

Parents can find information about future sessions online at <https://bit.ly/2KhuvOb>

Collard frustrated to miss out on place on the podium

RENOWNED charger Rob Collard put in a dazzling display to finish just shy of a podium finish in the three BTCC races at Donington Park.

The north Hampshire Team BMW racer struggled at the season opening Brands Hatch round, and had similar difficulties throughout a wet Saturday at Donington Park.

He scored his first points of the season with 11th place in race one at the Leicestershire venue, and made progress in race two before dropping back on the harder tyre, eventually finishing 13th.

In race three however, Collard pounced following a safety car and put in a tenacious drive to frustratingly miss out on the podium by 0.523s.

His P4 was even more commendable given his BMW 125i M Sport was damaged in a multi-car first-lap accident.

Having collected points for 11th and 13th places in the first two races, Collard was one of only four drivers to score in all three races at Donington; 21 in total.

The 49-year-old, 18th in the driver standings, said: "After the safety car we managed to really crack on and fourth is a fantastic achievement after qualifying 25th [the day before].

"I feel a little bit frustrated we didn't quite get a podium."

Hants points bonus

SAM Northeast has revealed that he is likely to be out for up to six weeks with a fractured finger.

The Hampshire batsman sustained the injury in training last Thursday, just a few days after making his first century for his new county, against Surrey at The Oval.

Northeast will miss at least two Championship and six One-Day Cup matches.

Meanwhile, his team-mates took five bonus points on the final day of their Specsavers County Championship match against an Essex side which included former England captain Alastair Cook.

Despite rain being forecast all day, and temperatures that persuaded several players and umpire Paul Baldwin to wear woolly hats, more than 90 overs were bowled on Monday.

Hampshire, having begun the final day on 241-4, gained 11 bonus points before captain James Vince declared on 351-7.

Hampshire, who have won, drawn and lost their three games so far this season, move up to third in the table while Essex remain unbeaten at the start of their title defence and leapfrog Yorkshire to go fourth.

Vince said: "To come away with 11 points from a game when we didn't get a huge amount of cricket is a decent effort."

Hampshire play away at Notts on Friday.

Title in the balance

THE title remains in Basingstoke Bison Ladies' hands after returning to winning ways on Sunday.

The Herd beat Swindon Topcats 5-2 to avenge the 2-1 defeat in the reverse fixture the week before.

Hannah Byrom bossed the game with a hat-trick as Basingstoke eased to victory.

Jodie Attrill (16 minutes) and Byrom's (20) first of the afternoon gave the hosts a 2-0 lead after the first period.

Swindon pulled it back to 2-2 but Byrom (35) made sure 'Stoke had the lead heading into the final phase.

The win was seen out in that last period thanks to goals from Lauren Pilbeam (42) and Byrom's third (57) of the afternoon.

Bison are now one point behind leaders Streatham Storm having played two games less.

They play home and away against Peterborough Penguins on Sunday and Monday.

Building for next season after bowing out with a lucky win

By George Welch

BASINGSTOKE Town's success next season will hinge on whether they can keep hold of their star players, according to incoming boss Jason Bristow.

Bristow, who will soon replace current manager Terry Brown, wants to keep the nucleus of his squad to build on this year's top-10 finish in the Evo-Stik South Premier division.

Town ended the campaign with a thrilling 4-3 win at home to Kings Langley on Saturday to win their 12th game since the turn of the year.

Encouraged by this season's turnaround, Bristow, the current academy manager, said: "The players have been fantastic this year. They've grown and grown and our form since Christmas has been as good as anyone."

"It's important that we try and keep the nucleus of this side together and build on that for next season."

"How far we go next season will be down to how many of them we can keep."

"Discussions have taken place with a number of players and we've got to sit down and try and tie people down for next year."

"That's going to be difficult because we've got a good group, there's going to be other clubs that will be looking at what we've got here."

Both Sam Smart and Callum Bunting have scored more than 20 goals and could catch the eye of other clubs.

The latter was on target with his 24th goal of the season as Brown oversaw a memorable last game in charge.

Jack McKnight (8 minutes) and Bunting (44) gave 'Stoke an authoritative final day lead.

But Brown's side did their best to throw the win away.

Jorell Johnson (55), Mitchell Weiss (58) and Kieran Turner (78) all found the back of the net as a rejuvenated Kings Langley fought back admirably for a 3-2 lead.

Most teams at this point would have given up, but not the Dragons.

With nine minutes to go, Sam Deadfield levelled things up with a nice finish.

In a grandstand conclusion the hosts grabbed the winner with three minutes left.

The deadly duo of Smart and Bunting combined and who else but Bunting was in the right place at the right time to net the all-important goal.

Bristow said afterwards: "We wanted to finish with three points and we've done that so full credit to the players and, probably not in the manner we wanted to, to give the home support a good send off as well."
